Policy Name: Workplace Harassment / Discrimination

Effective Date: January 11, 2001

Revision Date: September 1, 2002; December 1, 2011; December 20, 2017

Authorization:

Bill Cody, Deputy Secretary

I. PURPOSE

The Office of the Lieutenant Governor (OLG) and the Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism (DCRT) are committed to providing our employees a work environment free from harassment and discrimination. OLG/DCRT has formulated this policy to explicitly define the many forms of harassment that are prohibited in the workplace, and the procedure for effectively reporting such conduct.

II. PHILOSOPHY

OLG/DCRT strictly prohibits harassment and/or discrimination that is based on sex, race, color, religion, or which is related to a person's national origin, age, physical disability, and genetic information. Examples of behavior constituting harassment include epithets, slurs and negative stereotyping. OLG/DCRT also prohibits retaliation against an individual who reports discrimination or harassment, or who participates in an investigation into discrimination or harassment. The agency makes reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship, health, or safety concern.

OLG and DCRT also strictly prohibits the making of employment decisions based upon non-merit factors such as sex, race, color, religion, national origin, age, physical disability, and genetic information. Such employment decisions include hiring, continued employment, evaluations, wages, advancement, assigned duties, shifts and other such terms or conditions of employment or career development.

All employees must refrain from engaging in prohibited conduct within the workplace. Managers and supervisors are responsible for discussing this policy with subordinates and ensuring that the workplace is free from all types of harassment and discrimination. Any employee violating this policy will be appropriately disciplined, up to and including dismissal from employment.

III. DEFINITIONS/EXPLANATIONS

- A. Harassment/Discrimination based on sex: Includes verbal or physical conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment based upon an individual's sex, including unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Also includes employment decisions based upon an individual's sex. See OLD/DCRT PPM #4: Sexual Harassment for specific prohibitions, expectations and reporting requirements.
- B. Harassment/Discrimination based on race or color: Includes verbal or physical conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment based upon an individual's race or color. People of any race or color may be victims of racial harassment. Also includes employment decisions based upon an individual's race or color.
- C. Harassment/Discrimination based on religion: Includes verbal or physical conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment based upon religion or religious beliefs. People of any faith may be victims of religious harassment. Also includes employment decisions based upon an individual's religion.
- D. Harassment/Discrimination based on national origin: Includes verbal or physical conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment based upon national origin. Examples include inappropriate behavior because of an individual's birthplace, ancestry, culture, surname or other characteristics common to a specific ethnic group. Similarly, equal employment opportunities cannot be denied based upon a person's marriage or association with a member of a particular ethnic group, attendance or participation in schools, churches, temples, mosques, etc. Also, includes employment decisions based upon an individual's national origin.
- E. Harassment/Discrimination based on age: Includes verbal or physical conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment based upon age. Also includes employment decisions based upon an individual's age. The Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) protects individuals who are at least 40 years of age by making it unlawful for employers to refuse to hire, discharge or otherwise discriminate against such individuals.
- F. Harassment/Discrimination based on physical condition and/or disability: Includes verbal or physical conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment based upon physical condition and/or disability, and including discrimination based upon pregnancy. See the Department's policy on the Americans with Disabilities Act for specific prohibitions, expectations and reporting requirements.

IV. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Any employee experiencing or witnessing unlawful harassment/discrimination of any nature by anyone, including any manager, supervisor, administrator, co-worker, vendor, contractor, or visitor, shall immediately report the inappropriate conduct. Any such complaint may be made verbally or in writing. Under most circumstances, complaints should be made to the employee's supervisor. Such action may include counseling, reprimand, suspension, demotion, reassignment or termination.
- B. In addition to disciplinary action, other appropriate measures, including follow-up inquiries, will be utilized to insure that harassment/discrimination does not recur.

VII. NON-RETALIATION

- A. Any employee making a good faith complaint of prohibited harassment/discrimination will be protected from retaliation, reprisal and harassment. Likewise, any employee providing information or otherwise participating in the investigation of a complaint of harassment/discrimination, will be protected from retaliation, reprisal and harassment.
- B. If a complaint is made and the investigation reveals that retaliation, reprisal or harassment has occurred against a complaining employee or anyone participating in the investigative process, severe disciplinary action will be taken.
